Saturday Talk on 20th July

James Stewart is a retired QC, Judge, and Recorder of Bradford. He also sat at the Court of Appeal and the Old Bailey. Use this link for further details

Combating Climate Change

A Leeds MSc student is undertaking a survey of Ilkley residents' views on electric cars. He would very much appreciate the help of U3A members. The survey, which is online, takes about 10 minutes and can be reached through this link:- surveymonkey.co.uk. The deadline is 14th July.

Just for fun

Use this link to visit our website then scroll down on the front page to see a picture. What is the colour of the dress that you see? You have 3 choices:

A. White & Gold, B. Black & Blue, C. Something else

Try it with your friends and family but be prepared for an argument. Not everyone sees the colours in the same way. Use the link on the website to email me with A,B or C. We will publish the results before the end of July both on the website and in News Flash

Helping to run our U3A

Sue Butler is delighted with the response to her email request on 22nd June. Read it again by selecting this link and looking for the News Flash archive at the bottom of the page.
